Phonetician

A Publication of ISPhS/International Society of Phonetic Sciences

The cover art is a grayscale illustration of a human ear. Overlaid on the ear is a line graph with several data points connected by lines. A large, bold arrow points from the graph towards the ear. The text 'ISPhS' is prominently displayed in the upper right of the graphic area. To the left, the text 'dB' and 'energy' are visible, suggesting a scientific or acoustic theme.
